BEILIS FREE OF MURDER CHARGE

Jury at Kieff, Russia, Acquits Jew of So-Called "Blood Ritual Murder"

CASE OF MENDEL BEILES BECAME WORLD FAMOUS

Protests Against Prosecution Poured Into Russia from All Parts of Earth

KIEFF, Russia, Nov. 10.—Mendel Beilis, the Jew who was charged with the murder of 12-year-old Andrei Muschinsky in an alleged Jewish religious ceremony, was acquitted today by the jury, before which he has been on trial since October 8. The case went to the jury today. The Jews here were apprehensive of an anti-Jewish outbreak and many of them prayed in the synagogues all night.

At the evening session of the trial last night the president of the court asked Beilis if he desired to make a statement. The prisoner replied quickly:

"I should like to say many things, but am too ill and tired. I want to go home to my wife and children. You can see for yourself that I am innocent."

A mob of Christians gathered about the court, and howled with anger when the verdict became known, then would have rushed the prisoner except for the Cossacks guarding him with fixed bayonets. Beilis wept hysterically, then fainted in his lawyers' arms and was carried to his home, which was surrounded by a mob of fanatics. Troops are guarding his house and the streets tonight for fear that an anti-Jewish outbreak will occur and the government be embarrassed.

World Famous Case

The case of Mendel Beilis, who has been in jail for two and one-half years charged with "ritual murder" by the Russian government, is world famous. Russia has been called an "outcast among the nations" for her procedure in this case, which has been denounced as part of the prosecution of the Jews pursued by the government. Protests from over the world have been hurled into Russia against the prosecution of Beilis, who was the forerunner of the brickyard where the dead lad was found. There was no evidence against him except that given by a gang of thieves to which neighbors of the murdered boy's family belonged. The principal witness in the trial was Vera Tcheberlak of the band of criminals against whom suspicion now strongly points as having killed the boy.

The lad, who belonged to a Christian family, was found dead with 47 stab wounds. According to current superstition the alleged Jewish ritual, by which blood is secured for making passover bread, is accomplished by 45 wounds. This was the only pretext on which Beilis could be prosecuted.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH MEETINGS ATTRACT

All Services Drew Immense Congregations—Services Are Continuing

All of the services at the First Christian church were attended to overflowing yesterday. The evening attendance was unusually large and interesting. The sermon was an illustrated sermon on "The Bible Made Plain." Two large charts made plain to the eye the divisions of the old and new covenants and even the most casual reader could get the relations of the parts of the Bible.

Shepherd sang "My Faith in Thee" at the morning service. Miss Witt sang "Rock of Ages" at the evening service. Mrs. Hewitt played Tennyson's Brook as a special number as the crowd gathered. It was listened to with a great deal of pleasure by many in the audience, though the crowd was gathering in large numbers.

Tonight the subject is: "The Unpardonable Sin." The old subjects will receive a fair share of attention as well as more popular themes. In all of them, what the Bible teaches will be set forth.

Tomorrow evening the subject will be: "If a Man From Santa Ana Goes to Hell, Who Cares? Whose Fault Is It?" This service is addressed particularly to men, but all are invited. Services begin at 7:30.

TARIFF REBATE CLAUSE IS VOID

Atty. Gen. McReynolds Decides Against 5 Per Cent Rebate for Ship Owners

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The Treasury Department yesterday made public Attorney General McReynolds' opinion on the clause of the new tariff which gives a 5 per cent rebate on all goods imported in American vessels. The attorney general holds that this clause is null and void because it impairs treaty obligations of the United States government, guaranteeing many foreign nations against any discrimination in the matter of duties.

This means that an effort will be made by the treasury department to put this clause of the tariff law into operation. It means, too, that American ship owners will immediately take steps to carry the matter into the courts and obtain a judicial interpretation of the law.

Through the attorney general's opinion, the administration is relieved of several serious embarrassments. The enforcement of the clause threatened to bring on tariff complications with twenty or more nations.

MONEY MARKETS ARE BLOCKING SCHOOLS

Bonds Already Voted Cannot be Sold—No Use Voting Other Bonds

TUSTIN IS WAITING FOR NEW SCHOOLHOUSE

Meeting to be Held at Stanton Thursday to Decide Upon Course

The money market is standing in the way of the development of the schools of Orange county. In that respect this county is no different from other counties, except possibly that Orange county schools are above the average in ambition and desire for advancement.

The money market stands in the way because bonds cannot be sold. Orange county school bonds have always been recognized as among the very best bonds to be had. With resources and continued growth back of them, the bonds have looked mighty good to bond buyers. Just now, however, bond buyers are not doing business. They decline to take the best kind of bonds. They say the money market is tight.

Chief sufferer by reason of the money market's condition is the Tustin school district. Last spring the district voted $50,000 bonds. Tustin wants and needs a new schoolhouse, and without any previous indebtedness, the bonds are easily gilt-edged. When the bonds were offered for sale, no bids were received. Inquiry among the Los Angeles firms that buy bonds brought back the reply that they are not buying any kind of bonds.

So Tustin has been unable to secure the new schoolhouse.

County Superintendent of Schools Mitchell states that there are a number of districts that want to make improvements, but that they recognize that with the present condition existing in the bond markets, there is no use in going ahead voting bonds.

One district, however, is planning to hold a meeting of citizens on Thursday evening of this week to see what can be done about getting a new school. The meeting is to be held at the new town of Stanton on the P. E. beyond Garden Grove. Stanton has no school nearer than a mile and a half. It is that distance to the Savannah school to the northwest and the same distance to the Los Alamitos school to the southeast. These are one-teacher schools, Magnolia school. Residents of Stanton have felt the need of having a school close at hand. There has been some talk of establishing a union grammar school district, just what will be proposed and just what course will be laid out remains to be seen. Superintendent Mitchell has been asked to attend the meeting Thursday.

PACIFIC COAST TO TRADE SALMON EGGS FOR LOBSTERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—In a few days a refrigerated tank car will start west carrying 5000 lobsters, sent by the United States Fish Commission. The purpose is to stock the Pacific coast waters, now lacking in this variety of sea food, with fine Maine lobsters. In return the Pacific has sent to the east 12,000,000 eggs of the humpback salmon.

SEEK TRADE RELATIONS

PAYTA, Nov. 10.—The "Commercial Expedition" from the United States, composed of delegates to the commercial congress which met last month at Mobile, Ala., arrived here today on board the steamship Lamar for a stay of three days. Government officials extended themselves to give the visiting party an enthusiastic welcome. Closer trade relations with Central and South American merchants, manufacturers and consumers was the chief theme of speeches at receptions to the guests. The visitors leave here Thursday for Eten and Pascamayo.

SKILES IS HURT IN RIVERSIDE COLLISION

Chief Deputy County Assessor Has Both Bones of Leg Broken

HIT BY MOTORCYCLE DODGING STREET CAR

Rider Not Thrown, But Rode Half Block Before Injury Found

Robert H. Skiles, chief deputy county assessor, of Santa Ana is in a hospital in Riverside with two bones of one leg broken about half way between the knee and ankle. The injuries were received yesterday afternoon at Riverside when two motorcycles collided.

Yesterday Skiles rode a motorcycle belonging to his father, H. A. Skiles to Hemet, and was returning when he was hurt. The accident occurred in Riverside at a corner as a street car was making a turn. Skiles was watching the car. Another motorcyclist approaching the corner was also watching the car, and the two riders failed to see each other until it was too late to avoid a bump. The motorcycle skidded on the leg. While the impact was hard, Skiles was not thrown, and his motorcycle ran on for half a block before Skiles convinced himself that his leg was broken. He turned in beside the curb, stopped, and was taken to a hospital.

The fractures are severe, and the leg is badly bruised. This morning the deputy assessor's father visited the injured man, and found him resting easily. The physician in charge stated that he thought Skiles could be moved to Santa Ana in about a week.

CURRENCY BILL STORM IN SENATE

Hitchcock Attacks Wilson for Action on Bill—Sneers at Those Who Weaken

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The storm broke in the senate this afternoon over the Glass-Steagall currency bill when Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska criticized President Wilson for his alleged efforts to force a favorable report on the bill by the senate currency committee. He insisted that the committee would have reported within a stipulated time but for the "outside influence" which manifested itself Wednesday, "undoing what the committee had accomplished. We were told that the president did not like our course, and that we must retrace our steps," said Hitchcock. "I don't wish to criticize those who yielded but I would retire from the committee before I would vote for a vital, fundamental feature against my conviction even to meet the views of the president."

Preparing Report for Caucus Chairman Olson of the senate banking and currency committee with Senators Pomerene, Hollis and Shafter are working on a report to be made to the Democratic caucus called for next Wednesday. They will join in a recommendation that the caucus endorse the Glass bill practically in the form it passed the house. Whatever changes that are suggested will bear the endorsement of the president. The number of regional banks may be reduced below twelve, as provided by the house bill, but if this is done it will be only after the president has approved.

MEXICAN OPIUM SMUGGLER SHOTS INSPECTOR EVANS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10.—Immigration Inspector W. B. Evans was shot in the shoulder early Saturday morning by one of three Mexicans whom he stopped near National City and questioned under the belief that they were opium smugglers. All three Mexicans opened fire on the officer, who returned the fire. Mr. Evans shot one of the Mexicans in the foot and captured him, the others escaping. Seven cans of opium were taken from the captured Mexican.

STORM-BOUND IS EAST AND THE MIDDLE WEST

Snow, Cold and Blizzards Clutch Country East of Mississippi—Traffic and Wire Service Suffer

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Although it has not entirely subsided, the fierce storm that has been sweeping the East and Middle West for thirty-six hours past, is abating. Half a million dollars worth of damage was done here. Cleveland, Akron, Canton and other Ohio cities have been practically cut off from communication. Pennsylvania is buried in a foot of snow, while Maryland, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee are included in the storm belt which extended through the north and central states to New England.

Telegraphic business is practically prostrated throughout the East. Liners arriving in New York harbor report terrific gales at sea, and Lake shipping has been refused at all ports. It is feared much loss will be reported.

During the blizzard, Antonio Zuipuy was blown from a twenty-second street bridge and an unidentified man was blown from Fuller street bridge into the Chicago river. Both men were drowned.

Steamer Aground in Gale CALUMET, Mich., Nov. 10.—Eagle Harbor life savers today made a futile attempt to reach a large unidentified lake steamer aground off Manitowish Island in Lake Superior in a fifty-five-mile gale. The ship appeared to be pounding to pieces.

COUNTRY EAST OF MISSISSIPPI SNOW-BOUND—NO NEAR RELIEF NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Practically the entire country east of the Mississippi river from south to north is storm-bound, with driving snow and rains prevailing. The weather bureau has refused to predict immediate relief. The entire state of Michigan was gripped by the storm, Detroit being cut off from communication with the rest of the state by a furious snow storm.

Pennsylvania Gripped by Cold Around Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and spreading over a wide area elsewhere a sleet and wind storm crippled transportation and wire communication. Cold weather followed, freezing the water and snow.

Maryland Suffers Snow fell to the depth of fifteen inches in Western Maryland, hindering transportation. The heaviest autumn snow in years hit Baltimore.

HUERTA HAS NOT DEFIED U. S.—PROBLEM MAY YET BE SOLVED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Mexican Charge D'Affaires Agra announced today that the Mexican congress would convene in Mexico City on November 29 to resume legislative powers.

President Huerta recently took to himself. He said that he expects congress to invalidate the last election, call a new one and "proceed with the purpose of pacifying the nation."

Huerta Has Not Defied U. S. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—President Huerta has not yet formally defied the Washington government nor has the Washington administration abandoned hope of a peaceful settlement. This was made plain at President Wilson's audience with newspaper men today when he said that no new Mexican policy had been framed. He denied preparing a special Mexican message for Congress or that Envoy Lind has made any final recommendation. The Mexican matter will not be submitted to Congress for at least a week.

One feature of the situation causing gratification to the administration was that Embassy Lind and Charge O'Shaughnessy have so far failed to confirm the reports that Huerta would defy America. It is admitted here that Lind has made definite representations to Huerta, and that he has received no reply.

MUCH INTEREST IN THE SHOW

Bantams and Birds to be Brought Here from All Over State

The Orange County Bantam and Avian Club will hold its regular monthly meeting at Frank Trickey's Variety Store, 127 South Glassell St., Orange, Tuesday evening, Nov. 11, at 7:30.

The principal business to come before the club will be matters pertaining to the "Great California Bantam and Avian Show," which will be held under the auspices of the club Jan. 20 to 24, 1914, in Santa Ana. This will be the first show of the kind on this coast, and it is attracting a great deal of attention among the fanciers. The members of the club only hope that local people may show the same spirit of co-operation and good will that the breeders of other parts of the state are showing, for then there can be but one result—a big success.

The show is already being advertised quite extensively in a number of poultry papers. The editor of the Bantam Magazine of San Jose printed a quantity of neat little dogtags calling attention to the "Big California Bantam Breeders Show" to be held at Santa Ana, Cal., in Jan. 1914, and urging all fanciers to patronize, and if possible to attend the first Bantam show. These he distributed at the State Fair at Sacramento and also at several other early shows in the northern part of the state, all free of charge. That is unselfish energetic boasting.

While the principal feature of the show will be the Bantams, the management will also provide departments for pigeons, canary birds, and all kinds of fancy cage and aviary birds, such as pheasants, pea fowls, fancy ducks, guinea, parrots, and smaller birds. Geo. C. England, of Inglewood will judge the bantams with another judge added if necessary.

Thos. Walmesley of Santa Ana has been engaged to judge the birds.

Leo Armstrong of Orange has been elected superintendent of the show, and Theodore Reuter of Santa Ana as show secretary.

DRYS WANT AN ELECTION

Prohibitionists Complaining of Lifting Lid of Saloons and Gambling Houses

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Nov. 10.—A mass meeting of the anti-gambling and temperance people held at the First Methodist Church was addressed by several prominent citizens, resulting in referendum petitions being put out on the newly-enacted gambling ordinance and the ordinance lifting the saloon limit. These will be presented to the mayor and council with the request that the ordinance be held up to be voted on at the next general election—not before. If this is not granted, the temperance people will also file a petition for a wet and dry election. If the first request is granted, the latter petition will be withheld and no further elections held so far as the temperance element is concerned, as it would have gambling and liquor questions just where they have been for the past eight years. The Merchants' Association has also named a harmony committee, which will lend its good offices toward securing a settlement of the troubles. Under the present conditions, the question of harmony seems to be pretty much up to the mayor and council themselves.

LONDON'S LORD MAYOR TAKES OFFICE TOMORROW

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Sir Thomas Van Sittart Bowater, chosen Lord Mayor of London, to succeed Sir David Burnett, was introduced into office yesterday with all the usual pomp and ceremony which has always been rigidly observed on this occasion for the past 200 years. Sir Thomas was elected Lord Mayor without a majority of Londoners knowing anything about it.

The election was cut and dried, but accompanied with the usual ancient formalities. Being the senior alderman, he was "elected" after several complimentary votes had been cast.

POPULAR GIRL TO WED SOON

Miss Hazel Morrison to Become the Bride of Carey Billingsley

(By Staff Correspondent.) ORANGE, Nov. 10.—Mrs. V. A. Rossier entertained Saturday at her home near McPherson, with a formal announcement of the wedding of Miss Hazel Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrison of this city. Miss Morrison will become the bride of Mr. Carey Billingsley on Thanksgiving Day, November 27.

The Rossier home was a brilliant setting for the affair. The living room was handsomely decorated with yellow and lavender chrysanthemums and the dining room in pink and white chrysanthemums. The dining table was a feature. A centerpiece was formed of a large paper cake, representing a coconut wedding cake with pretty Cecil Bruner roses lining the top and bottom. The place cards were also decorated with artificial Cecil Bruner roses. A three-course luncheon was served and during the third course the announcement was made in a novel manner, from each plate a tiny ribbon led to the wedding cake. At a signal from the hostess the guests pulled these ribbons, and the cake yielded forth heart-shaper cards on which the message was written.

The ensuing afternoon was delightfully spent with progressive games.

The guest list included only the most intimate friends of the bride-to-be, many of whom had grown up with her from girlhood, as follows: Mrs. Stuart J. Flinham, Los Angeles; Mrs. Porter Luther, Tustin; Miss McCrory, Santa Ana; Miss Schildmeyer, Santa Ana; Mrs. Owen Murray, El Modena; Miss Billingsley, Miss Weinbrecht, Miss Potts, Mrs. Henry Campbell, Miss Morrison, Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Billingsley.

Miss Ella Sutton entertained at the M. O. Almsworth home Friday evening in honor of Miss Pansy Crawshaw, whose wedding to Mr. Elmer Yoray will be a near event. The home was decorated simply with bouquets of white chrysanthemums. Games and contests filled the evening pleasantly. Miss Crawshaw won first prize in a dice game in which sugar lumps were used. Her reward was a little "dancing" man, designated by the hostess as "an ideal husband." Another game was the throwing of rice bags through a blue embroidery hoop with wedding bells as targets.

At the conclusion of the games, the guests were invited to the Den o' Sweets, where a three-course luncheon was served. Later they returned to the Almsworth residence and the bride-to-be was shown a large white umbrella to which were attached a number of tags which she was instructed to take. They directed her to the hiding places of gifts which she found up-stairs and down cellar, some even being hidden in the kitchen stove.

Those present were: Frances Pixley, Vera Johnson, Laura Ott, Merle Dalton, Mae Almsworth, Nelle Almsworth, Margaret Jasper, Vera Wilbur, Ruby Winterrowd, Pansy Crawshaw and Ella Sutton.

A shower in honor of Miss Amanda Peters, who will wed Mr. Henry Rupp in the near future, was given at the W. T. Porter home, 270 South Olive street, Saturday evening by Miss Hilda Kirchhoff and the Misses Cora and Olive Hughes.

The affair was planned as a surprise and was featured by unique costumes of all the guests being dressed as "old maids." Pretty decorations were formed of chrysanthemums and ferns, with bells and tiny hearts.

The evening was filled with games and guessing contests, prizes going to Miss Ida Spotts and Miss Meta Roemer. The bride-to-be received numerous pretty gifts. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served.

Those present were: Misses Amanda Peters, Anna Peters, Lucella Cutright, Pearl Cutright, Meta Roemer, Gertrude Roemer, Meta Ralph, Vera Ralph, Jane Wells, Minnie Wurup, Flora Groff, Ida Spotts, Wanda Schoenberg, Millie Walther, Hilda Kirchhoff, Cora Hughes, Olive, and Mrs. N. T. Porter.

The H. O. Henderson ranch between Orange and Anaheim consisting of twelve acres of young Valencia orange trees, has been sold to Mr. Route of Los Angeles for the excellent price of $16,000. Mr. Route will take possession at once. The sale was handled by C. B. Berger of Los Angeles and Orange.

Mr. Berger also reports the sale of the Tummonds ranch, northwest of Orange, to Mr. Lee of Anaheim.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fitton of Santa Ana visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fitton in this city yesterday.

Mrs. H. McCrae of Santa Ana was a guest of Mrs. Emily and Miss Edith Leach yesterday.

Fred Lentz was home from Puerto to spend Saturday and Sunday with his parents.

H. W. Brown and brother, D. Brown of Hoover, Oregon, are registered at the Hotel Haynes.

Miss Lena McCombs has gone to Long Beach for an indefinite stay.

Miss Edith Stoll of Los Angeles was a weekend guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Webb, on South Olive street.

Mr. and Mrs. Vard Hanham of Anaheim spent yesterday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Palmer.

The regular meeting of the American Woman's Republic will be held tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Gitchell at 313 East Palmyra avenue.

Mrs. E. D. Bell and daughter, Laura, arrived Saturday from Goshen. They spent yesterday at Long Beach and expect to make their home there, after visiting relatives here.

E. R. Dargatz and family have moved back to Orange from Fullerton. Mr. Dargatz is employed at Elden and Grote's.

Miss Norma Brock and Mrs. C. A. Haynes spent Saturday in Orange and Santa Ana. They were looking over property in the latter place, which Mr. Haynes recently purchased and where they will soon locate.

Jack Roberts of Los Angeles, visited with old friends here yesterday.

Romaine Camfield and Thomas Rowland spent yesterday at Balboa and Newport Beach.

Miss Bernice Camfield of the Pacific Hospital, Los Angeles, was a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Camfield, on East Palmyra avenue, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKinnis and family are here from Summerville, Oregon. They may locate here.

Mrs. R. H. Smith and daughter, of Oregon, have taken rooms at the Edwards apartments for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin S. Burkland of Garrison, Kas., arrived Saturday for a visit with the G. W. Shell family. Mrs. Burkland is a granddaughter of Mrs. Shell. They expect to locate here.

W. N. Wright and family spent yesterday at Balboa.

Miss Hilda Kirchhoff left this morning for Fullerton for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Sayers.

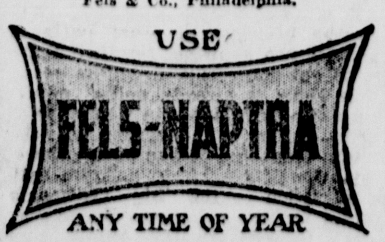

My dear niece Dorothy: Don't be discouraged about your work. Monday washing, for instance, which you say is such hard work. You have been doing it the old-fashioned, hard-rubbing way, you foolish girl. In the future use Fels-Naptha Soap, and it will be more like play than work. Your week will be started right and everything will go well. Affectionately, ANTY DRUDGE.

Fels-Naptha Soap has made wash day as pleasant as any other day, because Fels-Naptha has made washing easy.

More than a million women are washing clothes with Fels-Naptha Soap in cool or lukewarm water, without boiling or hard rubbing. Fels-Naptha whitens floors, brightens paints, removes grease spots and stains in carpets, rugs and upholstery.

Be sure to follow directions on the Fels-Naptha Red and Green Wrapper. Fels & Co., Philadelphia.

The Confessions of Arsene Lupin

By MAURICE LEBLANC
Author of "The Crystal Stopper," "813," Etc.

Arsene Lupin Confesses! That alone is extraordinary. But the crimes to which he confesses are yet more so. He solved the Baroness Repstein murder case for which 200 thousand francs reward was offered but as quickly withdrawn when the Baron disappeared abroad. He stole the Sarracento tapestries under the very nose of the police. He saved—but you will have to read these stories to fully realize his cunning. First you marvel at his clever thefts, then you roar over his irrepressible humor, then you are amazed at his detective powers. You think he's caught at last when he finds he's married, but you've thought that often before and you doubtless will again. Here is this versatile genius at his best.

SOCIAL EVENT STUDY EVENT

Two Affairs Held Same Evening at the Presbyterian Church

(By Staff Correspondent.)

ORANGE, Nov. 8.—Two affairs were carried on last evening in the Presbyterian church, neither being connected with or interfering with the other in any way.

The boys of Mrs. Robertson's class and the girls of Miss Elma Campbell's class of the Sunday school were entertained in the church parlors. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and music, following which dainty refreshments were served. About forty of the boys and girls were in attendance.

While all this merriment was going on above them, the Orange Graded Sunday School Union was in the basement in undisturbed study of the map of Palestine under Miss Meme Brockway of Los Angeles.

Miss Brockway conducts regular meetings of the Graded Union. She has recently returned from a trip to Palestine and under her guidance the members were moulding a map of that country, using dough for the work. The task was interesting, as are most of those set by Miss Brockway on her local visits.

G. A. Shoemaker, a South Cambridge street rancher, has purchased two lots on East Colver avenue in the Bibber tract and will soon build a new residence. The Shoemakers will move from the ranch to make their home in town.

Arthur Shipke, a local boy who attends Occidental College, has gone to Tucson, Ariz., with the Oxy football team, which will play the University of Arizona this afternoon. Shipke, though a freshman, is becoming a star on the Tiger variety, playing the position of right tackle.

Ralph Woods is home from his school at Placentia to spend the weekend.

Prof. Alfred Higgins, vice principal of the Orange high school, went to Pasadena this morning to attend a meeting of the Southern California Commercial Teachers' Association, of which he is president.

E. L. J. Collins of El Modena was slightly injured yesterday afternoon by an automobile which struck him as he was walking along East Walnut avenue near Cambridge street. His injuries are not reported serious.

The death of Mrs. Henry Dierker, aged 68, took place yesterday evening between 6 and 7 o'clock at the family residence on South Glassell street.

Mrs. Dierker had been ill for several months, but recovered, and during the last week was out and around attending social events, apparently well. The fatal attack came Sunday.

Mrs. H. P. Dalrymple was hostess yesterday afternoon to the committees of Royal Neighbors who had charge of the recent entertainment of the Santa Ana and Anaheim Royal Neighbors. The affair was at her home on North Orange street.

To occupy the afternoon each of the guests "piced" a silk block which were presented to the hostess.
Refreshments of brick ice cream, cake, pop-corn balls and candy were served.

Those present were: Mrs. H.
Lucy, Mrs. John Kaeser, Mrs. W. C.
Waechter, Mrs. N. U. Potter, Mrs.
Evan Davis, Mrs. William Wilson,
Mrs. P. H. Wilson, Mrs. Harry Wina-
low, Mrs. W. T. Porter, Mrs. Ray Valentine, Miss Agnes Ensign and Mrs. H. P. Dalrymple.

The Rural Mail Carriers' Association of Orange County was pleasantly entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. I. Bird on North Glassell street.

The regular business meeting of the association was accompanied by a social hour. Refreshments of sandwiches, pumpkin pie, doughnuts, apples and coffee.

A good attendance was present from Santa Ana, Anaheim, Fullerton and Orange.

The G.A.R. held a regular meeting yesterday afternoon with initiation services, at the I.O.O.F. hall.

The session was followed by a social hour. The Daughters of Veterans served them with chicken sand-

More than four hundred seals will welcome you. Enjoy the ride, the surf, fishing, boating, dancing. And let us show you what an exceptional opportunity we are offering investors at Seal Beach—where a few dollars planted monthly will develop into a harvest of wealth before you realize its growth or miss the expenditure—where the development will continue indefinitely and the values will increase without limit. Already the wheels of progress are under way.

Buyers Are Building and Builders Are Buying at Seal Beach

Not merely a town on paper, but a living, thriving progressive reality. Where workmen are busy constructing residences and business buildings; where additional streets are being made and new sidewalks laid; where beautiful palms are being planted; where there is a $150,000 bath house and pavilion; where there is the safest beach on the Pacific; where will arise one of the most popular resorts and best all-year-around cities on the coast. More than $500,000 has been planted at Seal Beach by home seekers and home builders. More than $50,000 has been set aside for street improvements. With all this vast expenditure of money think you that Seal Beach will lag or drag? We leave the answer to your own judgment.

WELL WORTH WHILE

The editor of this paper was pleased to note the attendance of four of the Orange county supervisors upon the sessions of the county committee of the California Development Board, at Hanford the last two days of last week. It is to be regretted that Chairman Talbot was not in attendance.

To be sure, our supervisors went to Hanford primarily to confer with supervisors from other counties and to investigate generally concerning exhibits at the Panama-Pacific Exposition; but not less important—perhaps even more so—was the opportunity offered them for acquiring almost priceless information and enthusiastic incentive along lines of protection and promotion of the highest and best interests of Orange County.

Cynics and pessimists are ever ready to cry out against "junketing," and in fact there has been in the past entirely too much "junketing" on the part of our state legislators; but this is not true in general of county supervisors, and certainly there has been none of it in Orange County during the time this writer has had opportunity of observation. Indeed so careful have the officers of this county been to avoid even the appearance of "junketing," that they have failed to attend many meetings and conventions of great importance and opportunity.

There is hardly ever a district or state meeting of county officers at which there is not opportunity to learn something of worth many times the cost of attendance; and if Orange County is to achieve its highest and best development and its affairs are to be conducted along truly economic lines it must take advantage of every opportunity to get and give information for the common good.

THE MEXICAN SITUATION

Foreign affairs, particularly relations with Mexico, continue to furnish the most acute, if not the most important, problem confronting President Wilson and the Administration. To the very last the President maintained the attitude of hoping that the elections advertised for October 26 in Mexico would furnish a means of settling that problem through the elimination of General Huerta, the dictator. The utterly farcical character of the alleged elections, however, has demonstrated the futility of such hope. Meantime an element of sinister potentiality has been injected into the situation through the indiscreet comment in Mexico City of Sir Lionel Garden, the British Minister to Mexico, who chose to present his credentials to Huerta on the day the Dictator had arrested the 110 members of the Mexican Congress, and who expressed to some American newspaper men his frank view that the American Government did not thoroughly comprehend the Mexican question. This unwarranted interference by a British diplomatic official of such standing threatened for a time to produce an unfortunate strain upon our relations with Great Britain. The British Government gets out of it, however, by officially advising the State Department that Sir Lionel Garden repudiates the interview credited to him. Thus, technically, Great Britain preserves a correct standing in the matter.

At the same time there appears to be an increasing feeling on the part of several important European powers that something positive and effective should be done to terminate the intolerable conditions in Mexico. Indications that Europe might find it necessary to act on its own account led to consideration on the part of this government of the question of issuing a general and formal statement definitely setting forth its attitude not only toward Mexico, but also toward all such problems, which are, unfortunately, of too frequent origin in the western hemisphere. President Wilson seems, however, to have concluded that it is not necessary, yet at least to issue such a statement. He has, to a certain extent, covered the ground in two recent speeches. One was at Swarthmore, Pa., on the occasion of the commemoration of Founders' Day at Swarthmore College. In extolling the spirit with which William Penn sought to establish "a free commonwealth" in America, the President said that the professed purpose of American conquest was "to see to it that every foot of the land should be the home of free, self-governed people, who should have no government whatever which did not rest upon the consent of the governed." And then he added this sentence, with its signally significant bearing upon the Mexican problem:

"I would like to believe that all this hemisphere is devoted to the same sacred purpose, and that nowhere can any government endure which is stained by blood, or supported by anything but the consent of the governed."

From Swarthmore the President went to Mobile, Ala., where, in an address before the Southern Commercial Congress, he supplemented his Pennsylvania speech. In a general discussion of the Latin-American situation and problem, he said:

"The development of constitutional liberty and world human rights, the maintenance of national integrity as against material interest—that is our creed."

"I want to take this occasion to say, too, that the United States will not again seek to secure one additional foot of territory by conquest."

"She will devote herself to showing an honest and fruitful use of the territory she has, and she must regard it as one of the duties of friendship to see that from no quarter are material interests made superior to human liberty and national comity."

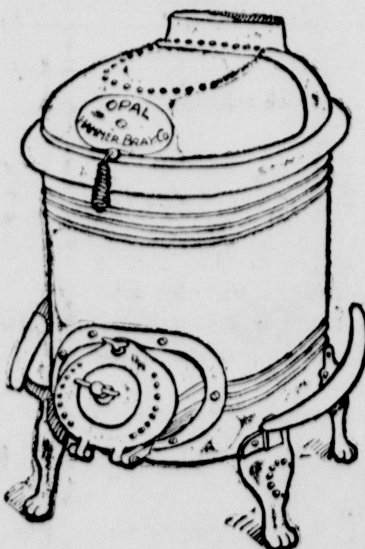

While the President in making this pledge regarding the future action of the United States undoubtedly voices the present sentiment of a vast majority of American citizens, it was inevitable that it should be pointed out promptly that not only the circumstances under which he made this declaration were very different from those obtaining when President Monroe declared the famous doctrine which ever since has borne his name, but also that the President has no power to give such a pledge and make it binding upon his country. Congress has on a few occasions undertaken to give pledges of that character. The one made in the Teller resolution at the beginning of the Spanish War has been kept, but the famous Crittenden resolution, adopted at the outbreak of the Civil War, endured hardly a year.

A new complication has been added to the Mexican problem by the granting of asylum to General Felix Diaz, who took refuge in the American Consulate at Vera Cruz with some of his followers and was transferred to one of the United States battleships. This act, while undoubtedly one of humanity, and probably the only means of saving General Diaz from Huerta's assassins, is in contravention of diplomatic precedent, international law and naval regulations. In his famous and authoritative work on international law, John Bassett Moore, counselor of the State Department, cites a number of precedents which up to this time have controlled directly against such action. It could not be done in the case of a powerful country disposed, as Huerta is, to make trouble, but this is a place where "might makes right."

THE WORLD'S ORANGE PRODUCTION

That the orange is one of the most popular of fruits is demonstrated by its wide distribution and consumption. Our consular reports note its production in over thirty different and widely scattered countries throughout the New World and the Old World, although its commercial importance is limited to but a small number of these.

The following list of orange growing countries, largely gathered from these consular reports, while not by any means complete, covers those countries of the greatest commercial importance:

EUROPE—Spain, Italy, France, Portugal, Cyprus, Crete, Southern Russia.

AFRICA—Jaffa, Algeria, Rhodesia, Transvaal.

ASIA—India, China, Japan, Siam.

AUSTRALASIA—Victoria, New South Wales, Western Australia.

WEST INDIES—Cuba, Porto Rico, Trinidad, the Bahamas.

THE SOCIETY ISLANDS, Haiti and the Azores.

The exports of oranges are largely confined to the following countries, which practically control the world's supply at the present time:

Total world's supply . . . 2,635,915,580

Of course these figures are approximate.

Orange exports of minor importance are made also from the Bahamas, Jamaica, Portugal and South Africa, while efforts are being made to establish the industry in Rhodesia, the Transvaal, Southern Russia, Mexico, China and other semitropical countries.

The increase in production and consumption in the past ten years has been very great, and the orange is growing in popularity and esteem the world over.

The total orange exports of the world are now over 40,000,000 boxes (California capacity), or over 100,000 California carloads. Of the quantity in 1911 California shipped nearly forty per cent—39,435 carloads—being seventy-five per cent of the total consumption in this country.

Nothing can show the wonderful development of the citrus industry in the past decade better than do these figures.

The United States and Canada consume some sixty per cent of the world's supply of oranges, drawing from California, Florida, Porto Rico, Cuba, Europe, and other minor points.

California is the world's largest producer of oranges.

The immediate future will see a great increase in orange shipments from California, which will place her far ahead of her nearest competitor, Spain, so far as quantity of fruit shipped is concerned.

That California holds no monopoly in the orange markets, either in the United States or elsewhere, is evident from the above data.

That the expansion of the business both here and abroad has been a marvelous one can readily be shown by an examination of the exports and shipments from the principal producing countries.

The future of the orange industry in California was never brighter than at the present time. A superior product well distributed and economically marketed, assuring profitable returns to the grower for many years to come.

The Christian Science Point of View

Editor Santa Ana Register.

My Dear Sir:—In a recent issue of the Register the Rev. H. C. Waddell is accredited with statements concerning Christian Science and its founder which are so surprising that I trust you will accord me some space for comment.

When Mr. Waddell tells us that his experience as a "student in Mrs. Eddy's classes fitted him to speak with authority on the subject," we are reminded of a parable related by Jesus of a sower and the seed that fell in stony places. Our critic forgets that many intellectual people, including ministers, college professors, physicians, judges, and a vast army of sane, sensible individuals have only embraced Christian Science after years of activity in orthodox churches and after having exhausted all that scholarly theology had to offer. As a student of the Bible and a professed follower of the humble Nazarene would it not be rather more becoming for a minister of the gospel to confine his energies to reducing the sum total of sin and misery in the world than to deliver tirades against a movement having the accomplishment of as much permanent good to its credit as Christian Science?

It is recorded in the fifth chapter of Acts that when, "by the hands of the Apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people, * * * there came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folk, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits, and they were healed every one," the high priest and his followers rose up and declared that the mighty works of the apostles were in substance "the spiritual lawlessness" or "spiritual anarchy" with which our critic characterizes Christian Science. A little farther in this same chapter, we are told that "a doctor of the law," named Gamaliel, said unto this high priest, "Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men, * * * And now I say unto you, refrain from these men, and let them alone; for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought; but if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God."

After having come out of "great tribulation" and being convinced by proof and demonstration that they have found the better way Christian Scientists could not very well be blamed for refusing to yield to such "reason and argument" as that advanced by our critic and with which they were quite familiar before embracing that religion which has brought freedom into their lives.

It is safe to assume, then, that Christian Scientists will continue to be about their Father's business of healing the sick, reforming the sinner, refraining from criticism and abuse of other people's religious beliefs and in general endeavoring to conform their lives to that of the great Exemplar until their opponents have something better and more practical to offer.

Thanking you for your kindness in giving space to the communication, I am,
Sincerely yours,
CHAS. E. JARVIS,
Christian Science Committee on Publication for Southern California.

PROGRESSIVE WHIST

Mrs. W. F. Palmer Entertains Seven Tables of Players at Pretty Garnsey St. Home

Yellow and white chrysanthemums, used in profusion, lent floral charm to the pretty parlors of the Wilbur F. Palmer house on Garnsey street last Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Palmer entertained a number of ladies with progressive whist. There were seven tables of players with Miss Margaret Wakeham winning first prize for high score, Mrs. W. L. Grubb second prize, and the consolation trophy going to Mrs. W. H. James. Miss Bradshaw of Orange assisted Mrs. Palmer in scoring and serving. A delicious two course collation followed the delightful games of whist.

Mrs. Palmer's guests included the following ladies: Mesdames J. Howard Turner, Hugh Plumb, R. E. Miles, Raymond Miles, W. F. Stearns, W. L. Grubb, Mark Lacy, F. C. Rowland, Walter Prince, Walter Vandermast, Chas. Kelly, Harl S. Kittle, C. G. Stock, W. A. Flood, O. H. Egge, L. L. Whitson, G. E. Norton, Geo. M. Paul, Roy Peterson, Will McFadden, Russell Scott, W. H. James, Fred Eley, H. H. Reeves of Santa Ana, and Mrs. H. L. Bradshaw of Orange; Misses Margaret Wakeham, Susan Cloyes, and Verna Peterson of Santa Ana; Miss Carrie Stutsman of Tustin; Miss Ada Phillips of Hollywood.

Particularly noticeable at this party were the many beautiful new gowns worn by the ladies. The costume was especially effective, many of the unique features of the present season's styles prevailing in the modish gowns.

Luncheon for Bride-to-be Pre-aging the ringing of wedding bells, an unusually pleasant and entertaining 1 o'clock luncheon was given last Saturday. The wedding is soon to occur, and Miss Rae McKean, a popular young woman of Santa Ana, is the one Cupid has selected to be the bride, and Carey Demaree of Oroso will be the bridegroom.

The 1 o'clock luncheon was given by Miss Alice Gall at her home on West Third street. The guests were mostly classmates of Miss McKean, members of the class of 1908 of Occidental College. When college girls get together, needless to say that they have a good time. The luncheon turned out to be more than a luncheon—it was a good old fashioned turkey dinner. The visitors spent a portion of their time hemming a dozen napkins, which were presented to Mrs. McKean to be added to the store.

DAINTY LUNCHEON

Out-of-Town Guests Meet Santa Ana Guests at Luncheon Given by Mrs. Baker

Mrs. Frank H. Baker of 520 West Fifth street delightfully entertained last Saturday with a dainty luncheon, a number of her guests being from Los Angeles and vicinity. The attractive home was adorned with yellow chrysanthemums in brown baskets, and the table was decorated with pink roses, carrying out the pink color scheme used for the table.

The afternoon following the luncheon was pleasantly spent in various progressive games and in social chat. A number of Santa Ana ladies were invited to meet the out-of-town guests.

The guest list included Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Miles, Mrs. Neel and Mrs. Pittland of Los Angeles; Mrs. Love of Beverly Heights; Mrs. Hoff and Miss Hoff of Hollywood; Mrs. Hoff of Glendale; Mrs. Prentice, Mrs. E. T. Mateer, Mrs. Zuyger, Mrs. Frank Smith and Miss Owen of Santa Ana.

A Surprise Party At her cozy home amid the spreading walnut trees of her grove at No. 1322 C street, this city, a surprise party was given in honor of her birthday to Mrs. Dorothy Milton.

It was given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Deakin, Grand avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Krummle of Washington avenue, uncle and aunt of Mrs. Milton, assisted by Mrs. Miller's two daughters, Misses Quenne and Bessie.

It was not a society affair with a many-course dinner place cards Japanese lanterns, music program, et id genus, given at 8 o'clock p. m., but a plain, unpretentious repast given at high noon, an old fashioned Pennsylvania farm dinner at which chicken pie, generous squares of pumpkin pie and similar et ceteras were much enjoyed.

The guests were Mrs. Josiah Ross and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tanner and Miss Marion Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. Justin M. Copeland and a young man, a friend of Mr. Krummle.

Many appropriate presents were given as tokens of love and esteem. After dinner an hour or two was passed in informal chat, and the party dispersed wishing Mrs. Milton many happy returns and declaring the occasion to be a successful surprise and a surprising success.

Unusual W. C. T. U. Meeting

An unusually interesting meeting of the Santa Ana W. C. T. U. is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the parlor of the First Congregational church. The subject for discussion will be "Our Foreign Population." An address will be given by Rev. Mr. Gonzales, who has charge of the Spanish Mission here, and the leader of the Japanese Mission will also speak.

The question of the foreign population is one of increasing interest in view of the nearly expected flood of immigration to the Pacific coast through the opening of the Panama canal, and every member of the W. C. T. U. of Santa Ana, as well as all others interested in the problem that confronts Southern California in the proper handling of the foreign population problem, should be present at this meeting. All are cordially invited to be present.

Conservatory Recital An unusually large attendance of parents and friends of the pupils taking part in the program listened attentively to the well performed numbers given in the recital held at the Orange County Conservatory of Music studio on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Gardner's and Miss Jessup's classes were represented and the larger share of the numbers were played in a way that reflected much credit upon their work and the Conservatory methods as a whole.

Allowance is always made for a certain amount of nervousness at pupils' recitals and while this was conspicuous in but few cases one remembers that the confident ones gained their greater assurance just through frequent appearances in these recitals.

Good tone work, rhythm, phrasing and other points of artistic expression were evident in nearly all numbers. Those taking part were Fern Flood, Velma Collins, Laura Morris, Jessie Johnston, Mabel Stumpf, Marjorie Tubbs, Blanch Hill, Golda Robertson, Mamie Armstrong, Carolyn and Mary Blake, Florence Mitchell, Charlotte Russer, Vivian Pierce, Gertrude Nemo, Clara Thomas, Byron Stumpf, Wilbur Place.

The Ebbl Book Section will hold its first regular meeting Tuesday evening, 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tedford, 1319 North Broadway. Winston Churchill's recent novel, "The Inside of the Cup," will be reviewed by E. M. Nealley. This book deals with some of the vital social and religious problems of today, and is regarded by the reviewers as the author's masterpiece. No book is being more widely read by the American public.

Literature Section The Ebbl Literature section will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Miss Mary Talbot, 826 Ross street. The subject will be "American Humor."

Monday Club Report The regular meeting of the Monday Club will be held this evening at Library Hall at 7:30 o'clock. A. J. McFadden will read a paper on "Unknown California."

L. T. L. Meeting Yesterday A large number of Loyal Temperance Legionnaires listened to the splendid addresses given by Mrs. Rawlings of Tustin, and Mrs. Lanark of this city yesterday at the United Presbyterian church. Mrs. Beardsley of Garden Grove, the W.C.T.U. county superintendent of L.T.L. work, was present and answered questions on organizations.

There are now four sets of juniors here doing temperance work, led as follows: Mrs. Ludwig and Mrs. Heil in the southwest part of town, Mrs. Nickell in the northeast part, and Miss Norman in the First Presbyterian church.

The different L.T.L.s added to the program of yesterday by recitations and songs. Much credit is due Mrs. Geo. Heil.

Don't Be Deceived This Stay, used only in Spirella Corsets has never been equalled. No other corset made has grown so rapidly in popularity. Sales in 1912 doubled those of 1911 and were 22 times greater than those of 1906.

To meet this steadily increasing demand, our factory in Meadville, Pa., has been extensively enlarged and each of those in Canada and England had to rebuild. A new factory in Germany started operations this year. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Whist Afternoon Mrs. Ben Turner, whose informal and pleasant social affairs delight the hearts of her friends, was hostess last Saturday afternoon at a whist party where the games were played progressively. There were ten tables of players and high score was won by Mrs. Rosa Boyd with first prize, the second prize going to Mrs. John Tubbs, and Mrs. J. R. Porter of Orange taking the consolation.

TAKES POSITION WITH CALIFORNIA NATIONAL

J. G. Morrow has accepted a position with the California National Bank, assuming his new duties this morning. He will be the bank's outside man, a position which by reason of his business training and extensive acquaintance, he is well qualified to fill.

Mr. Morrow has lived in Santa Ana for the past twelve years and has held positions of trust with several of the largest concerns here. For two years he was a trusted employee of the Edison Electric Company, where he was outside credit man, leaving that company to accept a similar position with the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company, a position he held for three years. About one year ago Mr. Morrow was obliged to give up all work temporarily, on account of ill health, and spent several months at Banning, returning here fully recovered. He is one of the most popular of young men of the city and will no doubt become a valuable addition to the already strong staff of the California National.

DIED

SMITH—In Santa Ana, California, at the family residence, 521 Wellington Avenue, on Sunday, November 9, 1913, Mrs. W. Smith, aged 77 years.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday, Nov. 11 at 2 p. m. from Smith's Chapel, and Mrs. Smith will be laid away later in the family plot at Fairhaven cemetery. Rev. J. A. Stevenson will officiate at the services.

Mrs. Smith is survived by her husband, S. W. Smith; one daughter, Miss Minnie G. Smith; four sons, W. H. George S. and L. L. Smith of Los Angeles and E. M. Smith of Los Angeles. The passing away of Mrs. Smith came after several years of more or less failing health, but the final sickness was of about six weeks duration. She will be mourned deeply by her family to whom she was truly a homemaker, being a devoted wife, and a mother in every sense of the word. After twenty-seven years of residence in Santa Ana, Mrs. Smith leaves the remembrance of a modest, well-kept life that won her the esteem and affection of all who knew her. The family is well known, having long commanded a prominent position in the community and will have the sympathy of all in the bereavement now being borne.

Creating New Capital

It is not the function of the Orange County Savings and Trust Company to merely conserve capital, but to administer its business in such a way as to be a factor in the creation of new capital. The profits of business houses are used largely in business expansion, and that means new capital earned in the business. It is the policy of this bank to co-operate with business men of Santa Ana.

MAY DEVELOP INTO GUSHER

Standard Expecting Great Things of Well Inside City Limits

The 10,000 Barrels a Day Well Keeps Steadily on the Job

FULLERTON, Nov. 10.—The Standard Oil Company, which brought in a 10,000-barrel gusher on the Emery lease last week, may bring in another gusher within the city limits of Fullerton in the near future.

Oil was found in one of the company's wells a mile and a half north of the center of the city two weeks ago, and it stood at a depth of 700 feet in the casing. Yesterday the oil ran over the top of the casing, and the well is expected to develop into a big gusher before a depth of 500 feet is reached. The hole is now down about 350 feet.

The Standard Oil Company's well on the Emery ranch in the Fullerton field has now produced about $99,000 worth of oil. The well has averaged about 10,000 barrels a day since it came in, some ten days ago, and has consequently, already yielded about 100,000 barrels.

Last week on certain days it put out more than 10,000 barrels a day. For instance, on Thursday, the production was figured at 12,000 barrels. Toward the end of the week the output appeared to be increasing. This has been the case with several of the other Emery wells.

The month of November promises to record another heavy over-production of oil in the state, as the Standard has also rehabilitated gushers Nos. 6 and 10 on the McNeely lease. They were at latest estimates, yielding an aggregate of 15,000 barrels a day. The Standard Oil Company's total production in the state is now close to 10,000 barrels a day, or considerably more than one-fifth of the entire output of California.

The company is drilling several more wells on the Emery lease. On an adjoining lease, the Murphy Oil Company about a week ago, brought in a 100-barrel producer. This well offsets one of the older wells on the Emery lease, which are a mile and a half to two miles distant from No. 7, the big gusher.

Oil men express the belief that the territory on which the Emery lease is located is the best so far discovered in the state. The oil is very high gravity, and every well which the Standard has brought in, and nearly all which the Murphy has finished have been of the gusher type.

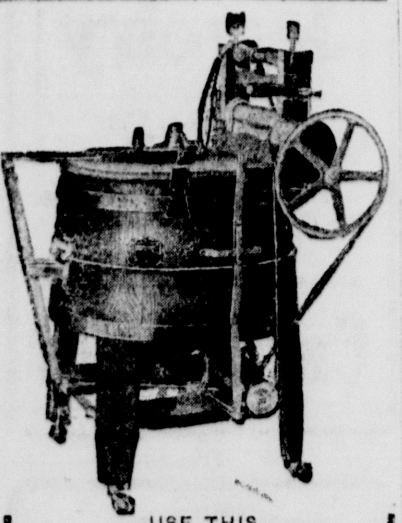

Every well on the Emery lease has produced 1000 barrels a day or more at some time, while even on the big company's McNeely lease in Midway, the well next to the big gusher would only be a small "pumper." The Lakeview gusher in Midway was a stellar performer while it lasted, but as well drilled in that division since it has had any particular claim to fame.

Instances of a similar condition in other sections might also be cited to show the remarkable character of the territory comprising the Emery and adjoining properties. The only companies which appear to have struck it rich there, so far, however, are the Murphy and the Standard, and they control practically all the proved territory, and a great deal besides.

IN HARD FOUGHT GAME SANTA ANA TIED LONG BEACH TEAM

SPLENDID WORK WAS ORDER OF THE DAY

Terrific Plunge by Holzgrafe Put Ball Over the Line

(By Vern Smith.)

With caps, hats and banners availing and amid the ear-piercing yells of hundreds of Santa Ana rooters, Dutch Holzgrafe, Santa Ana's full-back, with one mighty plunge, landed the ball back of Long Beach's goal for a touchdown. There probably never was so much genuine enthusiasm shown by Santa Ana rooters as there was when that touchdown was made. It was then that "Dutch" Holzgrafe made his great plunge and sent the ball over for a touchdown.

Immediately following the touchdown made by Long Beach, Santa Ana seemed to possess new life. It was then that they played the only real football in the game. Santa Ana received the kickoff, and with terrific line plunges and end runs the team forced the ball back to the shadow of the Long Beach goal-posts. It was then that "Dutch" Holzgrafe made his great plunge and sent the ball over for a touchdown.

During the first half the ball never got into dangerous territory for either side except that just before the whistle blew Long Beach forced the ball dangerously close to the maroon goal, but lost it on a fumble. Seth of Santa Ana punted forty yards out of danger and from that time until the end of the half there was not much going.

Just as soon as the bell rang the kickoff was in the air and the two teams commenced to tear through the Santa Ana line time and again on delayed fullback backs. Long Beach forced the ball down to within a few inches of Santa Ana's goal, then with a mighty effort the local eleven braced and held the ball for two downs. Long Beach, seeing that this was her last chance to score concentrated her efforts and with one great plunge the fullback carried the ball over between Santa Ana's left tackle and end for a touchdown.

Both Hughes and Whitson, Santa Ana's tackles, showed up in good form during the game. The two "ends," Holzgrafe and Robinson played their usual good game. The line men, both ends and guards played good football and came through with some exceedingly good line work.

In spite of the fact that they were out weighed at least twenty pounds to the man, the local squad played a fast and snappy game and had a shade the best of the tie.

Scrub Game
In my opinion the second teams' game was more bitterly contested than the big game. Hitting the Long Beach line like demons, the little Santa Ana scrubs fought their way foot by foot down the field until the ball rested on their opponents' twenty yard line in the second half. The ball was then given to Covington and he started around the left end for the touchdown. Wallace then kicked goal, making the score 6 to 0.

From the kickoff until the end of the first half the Santa Ana scrubs played a terrible game. Time after time they would hit their opponents' line.

NO DECISION ON THE STUDY HOUR QUESTION

Same Hours Will be Kept on the High School Schedule

(By Bruce Wallace.)

The current-Teacher Association failed to take action on the question of shorter school hours, at its last meeting. The question was fully discussed and each of the plans had its supporters, but that was all that was done. As a consequence the schedule for study and recitation will proceed as before.

The cafeteria has been placed under a new management which has improved its menu and incidentally its attendance. After several weeks of operation the cafeteria showed a fair profit but as it was not the intention to make money the prices were lowered and the portions of food increased. As a result the lunch room has been unusually popular the past few days.

The Webster Debating Club met at the home of Frank West on North Ross street, last Friday evening. Several former members were present. After the business meeting, initiation of new members and debating, refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned.

"More fun than a picnic," was the verdict of the hundred and seventy-five high school pupils and the good sized representation of teachers, alumni and boosters in general who accompanied the football teams to Long Beach last Saturday. There wasn't a soul, from the enthusiastic freshmen, all of whom wanted to carry the players' suit cases, up to the local business men who made the trip, who didn't have just about the best time ever. The three-car special left at noon, decorated with posters and pennants, which made the citizens of Long Beach stare as the cars came into the city.

The representatives of the high school stand did a thriving business on the way over, sold out, and on the way home disposed of the additional stock they picked up at the beach.

One of the most amusing features of the program was the gyrations of the Long Beach team. The two twins showed "ginger" galore. The local rooters, however, did their work in great shape. The singing showed considerable improvement over the attempts at the recent games and even the famous beach band failed to drown out the Santa Ana songs.

Returning home in the evening the delegation marched up from Beach street, and at Fourth and Main informed the town of their arrival and the outcome of the games.

Next Saturday come the games with Pasadena. A big delegation is expected to support the teams. The school will hold its "pop" raising assembly about Friday.

Line and carry the ball down the field. At the end of the first half by the good work of Shalkenberger and Covington the ball rested on Long Beach's three yard line with Santa Ana's first down.

Covington was easily the star in the scrub game. Stewart and Shalkenberger both played exceptionally fast and hard games, being responsible for much good work.

The lineups were as follows:
Long Beach LE Santa Ana Anderson Timmons Hughes
Dowdes LG Irvine, Beaton
Geddes C Warren

VEGETABLE SEASON GOING TO BE GOOD

Villa Park Shippers Start Winter Vegetables Which Are Now Moving Briskly

Orange county is going to have another splendid winter vegetable season. From the frostless sections, including Red Hill, Lemon Heights, El Modena, Santiago canyon's mouth, Villa Park, Olive, Yorba and Yorba Linda, large quantities of vegetables are to be shipped. The bulk of the crops will come from Villa Park and El Modena.

The Orange County Vegetable Growers' Association at Villa Park made its eastern shipment of winter vegetables Thursday with a consignment of four tons of bell peppers, says the Orange News. The association is now making daily shipments sending out over fifteen tons of vegetables, including bell peppers, tomatoes, chili peppers, eggplant, yellow and green beans, green limas and peas.

G. D. Williamson holds the record for the season in hauling the largest load of bell peppers, 34 crates weighing 1994 pounds; but J. B. Hardy is expected to beat this next week. It is said.

The secretary's report at the closing up of business from October 1, 1912, to October 1, 1913, shows a refund of $2,200. G. D. Williamson, it is announced, received the largest dividend check, $184.40.

A. Boulanger has been retained for another year as secretary at an increased salary. The new directors for the year are: G. G. Williamson, Dr. Popplewell, J. B. Hardy, E. Dala and W. H. Brown.

"Pape's Diapepsin" Digests Food When Stomach Can't—Cures Indigestion

Do some foods you eat hit back-taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mr. Dyspeptic, let this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.—Advertisement.

STOCKSLAGER WILL IS FILED

This afternoon Attorney Williams filed in the county clerk's office the will of R. A. Stockslager, the Santa Ana man who was accidentally electrocuted on his ranch at Hemet on Nov. 4. The will was written by Mr. Stockslager on May 9, 1912, and was witnessed by J. A. Turner and E. P. Stafford.

Under the will $4,000 is left to the daughter, Miss Hazel Stockslager, and the remainder of the estate to the widow, Mrs. Addie Stockslager, the petitioner for letters.

The estate is valued at $45,000. Real estate in this county is the home place on North Main street and twelve acres on North Bristol street.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

CANNOT GO TO WAR NOW, GUN IS TAKEN AND HE IS JAILED

Tustin Mexican Finds His Dreams of Blood Rugely Broken Into

Eduardo Alvarado dreamed dreams of blood and slaughter. He bought a great big pistol, and he counted the days until he could go to Mexico and shoot up a few people. It did not make much difference who the people were.

But Alvarado's invasion of Mexico has been postponed for six weeks. By that time a good many things may happen. Intervention might occur, and the time for slaughter might not be auspicious.

Alvarado is a sad man today. He is in the county jail under sentence of six months for carrying a revolver. He lives at Tustin. Ten days ago he bought the firearm, having made up his mind to go to Mexico and look for hostilities. He did not have money enough to get across the border, so he delayed starting.

He was riding a bicycle along the street when young Collar of Tustin drove up in a buggy. Alvarado is not a good bicycle rider, however good he may be with the gun, and Collar made some remarks concerning the manner in which the bicycle was being propelled. Alvarado flew into a rage, and in an instant he had dismounted and had his nice new gun in his hand. There was no shooting, but later Alvarado was arrested. After the story was told to Justice Cox, Alvarado was sent to jail. The revolver was confiscated. Therefore Alvarado is a sad hombre.

Coffee

Quality—economy—do you get the idea?

Put it strongly to make the idea clear: Schilling's Best Coffee is worth ten times as much as cheap coffees—measured by the amount of pleasure and comfort—you can get out of it.

Coffee is neither for thirst nor hunger. It's an inexpensive luxury—if it's good.

Schilling's Best is preserved in its aroma—in aroma-tight tins, everfresh; moneyback.

Going to Chicago to Advertise South Half Of the Golden State

Los Angeles Times: In the baggage car ahead, fifteen tons of Southern California's finest products of the bush and the vine, not counting nearly a ton of advertising literature contributed by Frank Wiggins, left yesterday by limited train for Chicago. It is the contribution of the Southern California Exposition Commission to the Land Show which will open in Chicago the 29th inst., to continue through to December 8.

According to Secretary Wiggins of the Chamber of Commerce, who assembled the exhibit from all corners of the Southland, it is the largest single exhibit and by far the finest that has been sent from here since the St. Louis exposition.

Because the exhibit is the apple of his eye—also a showing on which he hangs high hopes of attracting many to Southern California—Wiggins personally superintended the transfer of the exhibit from the processing rooms at the Chamber of Commerce to the waiting baggage car. He was also not adverse to putting his hand to the wheel, or rather, to the handles of a truck, when occasion merited.

"Did it back in Richmond, Ind., before I lost flesh," said Wiggins. Though the exhibit will occupy 3000 square feet of floor space at the Chicago show and each single specimen is guaranteed to catch and hold the eye, no chances are being taken of Southern California not being in the limelight there. Along with the exhibit went Norman Juett, assistant exhibitor for the chamber, who will recognize fragments of Paradise when they see them," said Wiggins.

WHILE HE WAS AT THEATER AUTO RAIDED

William Armstrong went to Clune's Theater Saturday night, and it cost him a good deal more than the price of admission. He left his automobile standing on Third street near Spurgeon. After the show it developed that someone had stolen an overcoat, a flashlight, a pair of gloves and a plush robe out of the automobile. The matter was reported to the city police.

For Speeding Motorcycle Officer Ballard made two arrests for speeding yesterday. J. C. Batchman of Fullerton was stopped for driving an automobile twenty-eight miles an hour on South Main street, and E. L. McCarter for letting his motorcycle go thirty miles an hour on East First street.

Four arrests were made by city police of men charged with being intoxicated.

BRESSEL A BAPTIST NOT AN ANARCHIST

Julius John Bressel of Cypress got off a good one in County Clerk Williams' office Saturday. Bressel was taking out his first papers of citizenship. Williams asked him his age. The answer was 29.

"I got a marriage license here, and you have got all those things about me," said Bressel.

"Well, we will have to get part of them again," replied the clerk.

So they went ahead. Bressel was born in Volhyn, Russia, and came to America in 1909, of the white race, fair complexion, 5 feet 7 inches tall, 169 pounds in weight, brown hair, blue eyes.

"Are you a polygamist?" asked Williams.

"No," replied Bressel.

"Are you an anarchist?" was the next question asked.

"No, I am a Baptist," said Bressel.
